

Credit Union House

Hall of Leaders Nomination Form

The Credit Union House Hall of Leaders permanently recognizes credit union leaders who have made a significant impact on the credit union movement at the local, state, or national level.

Names of inductees are prominently displayed on the second floor of Credit Union House and viewed by all who visit the facility, including Members of Congress, credit union leaders, and thousands of annual visitors.

A $2,500 sponsorship will allow your League/credit union to permanently recognize the distinguished service of your key leader.

Recognition includes:

- Permanent display at Credit Union House naming your leader, their role at your League/credit union, and your League/credit union's name;
- Announcement of your nominee as an inductee to the Credit Union House Hall of Leaders in publications, website, and during CUNA GAC;
- A commemorative plaque for the inductee; and
- Annual contributor recognition of your key leader in the induction year.

Nominate a worthy individual to the Hall of Leaders by completing and returning the nomination form to contact@cuhouse.com, via fax (202) 548-3148, or by mail to Credit Union House at: 403 C St. NE, Washington D.C. 20002
